

PRESS RELEASE – IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 27 NOVEMBER 2013

Sponsors announced for THE BIBLE, the epic TV mini-series, on Channel 5

Spring Harvest and Buck Denver asks...What's in the Bible?® are to sponsor the upcoming Channel 5 mini-series THE BIBLE which will air on Saturday 30 November at 9pm.

From Executive Producers Roma Downey (Touched by an Angel) and Mark Burnett (The Voice, Survivor, Shark Tank, The Apprentice) THE BIBLE is an Emmy® nominated, epic 5-part, 10-hour mini-series which combines one of the greatest collections of stories ever assembled with live action and state-of-the-art CGI. The series is narrated by BAFTA nominated actor Robert Powell (Jesus of Nazareth, Holby City, The Detectives) and features a musical score by the world renowned Grammy and Oscar-winning composer Hans Zimmer. From Genesis to Revelation, THE BIBLE series features some of the most famous stories ever written and some of the most iconic characters - from Noah's Ark, the Exodus and Daniel in the lion's den to the birth, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Event organiser Spring Harvest and video producer What's in the Bible? are delighted to announce that they will sponsor THE BIBLE series on Channel 5.

"Guests at our Easter-time events come to learn from the stories and teaching in the Bible" said Spring Harvest spokesman Malcolm Duncan. "Our sponsorship of this series reminds viewers that there are plenty of people out there who still have confidence in the Bible."

What's in the Bible spokesman David Dorricott commented: "The Bible is the best-selling, most influential book in history and yet it is probably also the least read book on many people's bookshelves. Channel 5's airing of THE BIBLE, the epic TV mini-series, dramatically introduces viewers to some of the greatest stories ever told. Through our own video series we seek to walk families through the whole amazing Bible story - from Genesis to Revelation; answering some of the big questions people ask, such as 'who wrote it?' and 'what difference does it make to our lives?'"

3. Selected comments

.....the most surprising television success of the year in the United States. Defying expectations that a simple retelling of the Bible stories, including depictions of Adam and Eve and Samson and Delilah, would not appeal to a modern television audience, the series has been creating headlines and major ratings figures.

The Observer's Paul Harris comments on the success of THE BIBLE series in the USA.

THE BIBLE series is an excellent dramatisation of the Bible. It is historically credible and put together with sensitivity and imagination. The producers have a wonderful ability to make you think about familiar scenes in an entirely new way.

Helen K Bond (Senior Lecturer in New Testament, University of Edinburgh)

Attempting to depict the whole span of the biblical narrative from Genesis to Revelation is a bold undertaking. THE BIBLE series pulls it off. It has paid very close attention to the text but at the same time imagined what it might have felt like for the different characters depicted.

Paula Gooder (Canon Theologian of Birmingham and Guildford Cathedrals)

THE BIBLE series is stunning - superbly acted and beautifully produced. It brings the stories of the Bible to life in an extraordinary way.

Nicky Gumbel (Vicar of Holy Trinity Brompton)

THE BIBLE series has stunning authenticity - a realism I've rarely seen. It grips the viewer totally, due to its sheer attention to detail and excellence of casting, costumes, and content.

Greg Haslam (Senior Pastor, Westminster Chapel)
